1955 EL PADRE

Published by the Seniors of

JUNIPERO SERRA HIGH SCHOOL

Gardena, California

Dedication

We the students of Junipero Serro High wish to dedicate the 1955 El Padre to our PARENTS in appreciation for our life and for their untiring sacrifices to see that we develop into a true follower of Christ.

His Holiness Pope Pius XII

Our Holy Father Speaks . . .

Calling to mind, therefore, the things which have already been so fruitfully achieved, you all have reason to rejaice mightily, and to give thanks to the Father of lights from whom every best gift and every perfect gift comes (Cf. James, 1, 17). You have, moveover, with the help of God every reason to take heart for the future. Continue most certainly to pursue with the greatest care the works you have undertaken, and to carry them forward with all your strength. May the minds and wills of the young be so adorned and fortified by the divine and human teachings of your institution that they may yield to no one whatever, but rather shine forth as an example to all.

May all of you influence others, not only by the splendor of your learning, but also by the allurement of your virtue, for virtue has the voice to draw wills most collectively. Remember, however, that saying of the Angelic Doctor: "It is greater to illumine than only to shine; greater to hand over to others the fruits of contemplation, than only to contemplate" (St. Thomas, Summa Theologica, Il Illae, Q. 188, a.6). This is therefore your mission; guard it with the most diligent care, so that the teaching given you may issue as widely as possible into action and life unto the genuine welfare of the private and public weal."

"What I consider distinctive in the Society of Mary and what appears to me without precedent among known institutions, is that we embrace the religious state itself in Mary's name and in her honor. This means spending ourselves, body and soul, for her, to make her known, loved, and served thoroughly convinced that we cannot attract men to Jesus except through Mary."

"Mary of who was born Jesus." Nourished and reared by her, He did not leave her during the whole course of His mortal life; He was subject to her, and He associated her with all His labors, with all His sorrows and with all His mysteries Devotion to Mary is, therefore, the most salient point in the imitation of Jesus Christ.

MARY'S GUIDANCE

In this competitive world of today the desire to win over appositions is a vital asset to reach success. The parents and teachers both realize this and know that one of the best ways to develop this in the student is to provide him a full activity program. The student whether he is participating or spectating can learn such virtues as loyalty, fair play, and perseverance. These will all prove important attributes to the character of the student in later life. As long as activities promote such vital virules and has such high ideals then there will always be a full activity program at Serra

SON'S DEVOTION

Sodality

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, as organized at Serra High School, has for the purpose, a two-fold object: first, to assist each member to attain Christian perfection; and, second, to aid every student in the school, by apostolic action, in the practice of Christian virtue. The Sodality purposes, furthermore, to extend its influence to all men with whom its members come into contact and so aid in establishing the kingdom of God in the city of Gardena and its environs.
